

Articulating the Subconscious Mind (2017- )

I couldn't accept the idea of natural objects such as rocks, water and land. I have tried to discover what is hidden behind my subconscious mind by reconstructing what they really are. Some complicated feelings toward my parents, which I have never expressed in words before are reflected in my photographs and I realized those feelings had tormented me without knowing by myself. In order to relief myself from the negative feelings and regain the balance of life, I will confront the source of my unconscious mind.

私は自然の岩や水、大地といった概念を否定し、自分の中で再構築する事で無意識下にある物を探ろうとしている。両親に対する言葉にしてこなかった複雑な思いが写真に写り込んでいて、意識の外で自分を苦しめていたことに気がついたからだ。負の感情から解放され心の均衡を取り戻すために、私はこれからも無意識下にある物と対峙していく。
